The President and Committee of the Oxford and Cambridge Society of the Netherlands have great pleasure in inviting you to its

ALUMNI

2017 Candlemas Evening of music and poetry to be held at "Emile van Leenen Piano's", Lammermarkt 59, 2312 CM Leiden on Saturday, 4 February 2017 at 7 p.m.

including a 30 minute programme of music from John Macfarlane (clarinet), Emma Brown (soprano) and Hein Putter (piano)

Candlemas is an evening of music, poetry, readings and other contributions from our own members. Guests will be welcomed with coffee or glühwein and you will be free to wander amongst the pianos until the programme starts! During the interval we will serve a buffet supper and drinks.

Members and guests are asked to contribute EUR 15 towards the cost of the room hire and the refreshments. Please let our secretary know whether you would like to attend by sending an e-mail to secretary.OCNL@gmail.com and make your payment to the Society's bank account in the name of "The Oxford and Cambridge Society of the Netherlands", account number NL20 INGB 0002 2259 07

Please let us know if you would like to contribute an item such as a piece of music (there is a grand piano in the room), a short talk or something else. All contributions are welcome but you are also free just to come and enjoy the evening!
